

Key facts you need to know

- 1 There is one race, the human race.
- 2 That Britain is a multicultural society made up of people from diverse backgrounds.
- 3 We share many similarities with people all over the world and we are all different because of our birth and heritage.
- 4 Hunter's Bar Junior School is enriched by the diversity of our school community.
- 5 No group of people is better than another.
- 6 Everyone is created equal but inequalities exist in society.
- 7 Black Lives Matter is an important protest movement in many countries
- 8 Britain is a democracy – this means every citizen over 18 is allowed to vote and share their opinions peacefully.
- 9 Benjamin Zephaniah is a British writer, poet and Rastafarian. He was included in The Times list of Britain's top 50 post-war writers in 2008.
- 10 In the UK, we have a legal right to peacefully protest.

A summary of the unit

Recognising that diversity enriches communities. Understanding that although we are all born equal, inequalities exist in society. Knowing that we can make a difference through our own actions and by peaceful means.

Vocabulary

1	Diversity	A range of different things, cultures or people.
2	Equality	Being equal.
3	Identity	Who a person is, or the qualities of a person or group that makes them different from others.
4	Culture	The way of life (especially customs and beliefs) of a group of people at a particular time.
5	Justice	Upholding what is fair, just and right.
7	Heritage	Feature belonging to the culture of a society, such as traditions and languages, that were created in the past and are still important.
8	Tolerance	A willingness to accept behaviour and beliefs that are different from your own, although you might not agree with them.

