

What facts do I need to know?

1	The Amazon rainforest is located in South America.
2	Indigenous is the term used to describe the original people of a particular place.
3	A group of people who live together and share the same culture can be called a tribe.
4	Amazonian Indians is the name given to the tribes people of the Amazon.
5	Dance is used as a way to communicate, tell stories, warn others and to celebrate.
6	People of the rainforest are the same and different to me.
7	The Amazonian Indians use the rainforest as a source of food, medicine, clothing and for shelter.
8	The Amazonian Indians decorate their skin with paints, piercings and markings

What is this unit about?

The place where people live influences what they believe, think, feel and how they behave.

The tribes of the Amazon rainforest

What words will help me?

1	Environment	The natural world around us.
2	Express	When you express an idea or feeling, you show what you think or feel.
3	Interact	To talk or do things with other people.
4	Communicate	How we share information with others e.g. through talking, dancing, writing and art.
5	Connection	Joining ideas and things together.
6	Function	The job something does. The function of a saw is to cut wood.

Websites to support learning

<https://www.adventure-life.com/amazon/articles/indigenous-people>

Questions to answer

What are the similarities and differences between ourselves and Amazonian Indians?

How do different cultures express themselves through dance?